SFW. Style. Lively.

Scottsdale's destination celebration of fashion and fine living

When Scottsdale Fashion Week struts into town this fall, the style quotient on the streets of downtown Scottsdale climbs to "haute" new heights! This third annual event promises to draw record crowds of fashion-forward attendees with 50 shows taking place on two major runways.

Adding to the excitement of this year's event, internationally acclaimed designer Zang Toi will headline the Saturday night runway lineup with dramatically elegant fashions accented by his exuberant personal style. With a broad celebrity following that includes Ivana Trump, Eva Longoria, Debra Messing and Farrah Fawcett, there's no telling who might be in the audience.

Local fashion designers also will be featured including Angela Johnson, a familiar face among independent clothing designers in Arizona. A champion of the local fashion scene, Johnson has a show planned for her designs and will encourage other "indie" designers to show on the SouthBridge runway throughout the weekend event to round out an eclectic mix of local, national and international designers.

So, whether you're a celebrity fashion follower, independent designer devotee, or just like to be where the scene is sizzling, Scottsdale Fashion Week guarantees a good time for everyone. www.ScottsdaleFashionWeek.com
